A Complete Political Manual and BUSINESS DIRECTORY of the State of Maine.

The General Statistics give all State and County Officers, Courts, Banks, Newspapers, Insurance Companies, Churches, Societies, Railroad and Steamboat Lines, with Distances, Fares and Stage Connections; also an immense amount of collated and tabulated matter covering the whole country.

The Town Statistics include the location of Towns and the best methods of reaching them; Valuation, Population, Ratable Polls, Brief History, Post Office Addresses of all City and Town Officials, Merchants, Manufacturers, Clergymen, Hotels, Schools, Associations, Notaries, Justices, Lawyers, Physicians, etc.

The Business Directories of the cities are as complete as in any City Directories, thus giving in one book 20 City Directories and 423 Town Directories, with Township and Railroad Map of the State, revised to date.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,

AUGUSTA, Me., March 16, 1893.

The Maine State Year Book, published by Mr. G. M. Donham, is the official publication of its kind for the State of Maine, and covers in a practical way all its interests—Industrial, Commercial, Political, Social, Educational and Religious, with remarkable reliability in all its statistics.

WARNING!

Owing to the many "Fake" Directory schemes and swindling operations conducted under the guise of advertising mediums of various kinds by irresponsible parties, we are compelled to warn the public against all such. The only safe course is to refuse absolutely to pay any money in advance, or to sign any orders or vouchers which can be unlawfully used. Legitimate publishers are content with remuneration when service is rendered or goods delivered.

The publishers of the Massachusetts Year Book expect to furnish the capital to conduct their business, and are willing an inspection of their book should be made before payment is demanded.
